UNIVERSITY „GEORGE BACOVIA” IN BACAU, ROMANIA - 25 YEARS OF THE ESTABLISHMENT - „ACTA UNIVERSITATIS GEORGE BACOVIA. JURIDICA” AT ITS 10th ISSUE

*„No one can live without friends,
even if he/she possesses all world wealth”
(Aristotle)*

2016 is an important anniversary year. University „George Bacovia” in Bacau reaches 25 years of existence, during which time he became and was consolidated as an important educational, scientific and cultural in center area of Moldova, being a true source training of professionals in various fields. The road traveled has not been easy, but to honesty those who honored the University, in their capacity as teachers and students, each by enthusiasm, competence and dedication have contributed to raising modern edifice that is today the University „George Bacovia”.

Five years ago, namely in 2011, the managing board of George Bacovia University decided to found a magazine specific for the faculty of Law and Public Administration for the purpose to put into value the scientific research of the teaching staff, both at the institutional level, but also at the national and international level.

Having a precise task, us, faculty colleagues, associate professor PhD Ioan Ciochina-Barbu, associate professor PhD Alexandru Amititeloai, senior assistant PhD Nelu Nita and junior assistant PhD student Adrian Lupascu, together, have started to do the necessary steps.

First we identified the legal basis, then by making some visits to other Law Faculties in the country (Alexandru Ioan Cuza University and Mihail Kogalniceanu University in Iasi, Dunarea de Jos University in Galati, Bucharest University, The Ecological University in Bucharest and Transilvania University in Brasov) where we met some of the most experienced teaching staff in the field, such as professor PhD Toader Tudorel, professor PhD Ioan Macovei, professor PhD Genoveva Vrabie, professor PhD Corneliu Barsan, professor PhD Alexandru Ticlea, professor PhD Florin Ciutacu, professor Ph D Cristinel Ioan Murzea, professor Phd Victor Werter, professor PhD Vasilica Negrut, which encouraged us and helped us to continue our task sharing us some of the secrets of such a noble mission, not hiding us the difficulties which could appear.

Some of the above mentioned personalities accepted with a great pleasure to be part of the Editorial Board of the magazine and further more they facilitated us the contact with teaching staff abroad from Europe and other countries activating in the field of Law. Thus professor PhD Genoveva Vrabie helped us to be in touch with the famous professors Rainer Arnold from the Regensburg University in Germany and Mirosław Granat from the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, Poland, PhD, Président de la Société de droit comparé de Pondichéry, India; Aurelia Lucia Beatrice Colombi Ciacchi PhD, Aurelia Lucia Beatrice Colombi Ciacchi PhD, University of Groningen, Nederland; Seán Patrick Donlan PhD, Irish Society of Comparative Law, Ireland, Lucila Gatt, PhD, Private Law and Comparative Law University of Naples Sour Orsola Benincasa, Italy, Giovana Capilli PhD, Sapienza University, Italy, Gabriel Moens, PhD, Murdoch University, Australia, etc.

Certainly that, facing the proposed standards, respectively a high level of scientific research expressed through works that were going to be published, we solicited and we got the collaboration of other prestigious collaborators such as: Razvan Teodorescu, Academician Professor PhD, Member of the Romanian Academy, Romania, Victor Moraru PhD, University of Academy of Science of Moldova, Grigore Rusu PhD, Moldova State University, Moldova, Ștefan Belecciu PhD, Ștefan cel Mare Police Academy, Moldova, Josef Hajdu PhD, University of Szeged, Hungary; Vlad Barbu PhD, Alexandru Ioan Cuza Police

After fulfilling all the formalities, respectively establishing the Editorial Board, the Editing Board, the registration at the National Library etc., we started to work for the first issue of the „Acta Universitatis George Bacovia. Juridica” Magazine, which appeared in June 2012.

From this date on there were published, in the 10 issues appeared until December 2016 over 200 articles, representing the same number of research themes, structured in the fields of Public Law, Private law, European Law, International and Doctrines also.

In the pages of the „Acta Universitatis George Bacovia. Juridica” Magazine there published articles have a high level of scientific research great personalities of the legal field but also young PhD students combining thus the seniors experience with the tenacity of young researchers.

Having as model the sayings of professor Ph.D Cristinel Ioan Murzea, expressed in numerous hours of discussion on the issue of the importance of law within the society, according to which “being the creation of the spirit, law is not a pure mirror of the reality. It starts from realities, but it assimilates them, labouring them conceptually”, even from the beginning of the first issue the Editing Board aimed to promote within the contents of the magazine articles with a certified scientific value, a fact that made possible the indexation of the magazine within the international data bases such as SCIPPIO, C.E.E.O.L., ProQuest and EBSCO.

The Editing Board will be preoccupied to enlarge the scientific prestige of the magazine as later on it could be indexed in more international data bases, but also for ISI, as far as possible, and impact factor, calculated and published by Thomson Reuters Journal Citation Reports.

At the end of these lines we want to thank to all the members of the Editorial Board and to all our collaborators, internal or external ones, for the high efforts done and express our desire and hope of a future fruitful experience.

At the same time we want to thank to the managing Board of „George Bacovia” University in Bacau for the financial support in the semester appearance of the magazine.

Paraphrasing Aristotle, as „no one can live without friends even if he/she possesses all world wealth”, we also can not live without you, dear collaborators of the „Acta Universitatis George Bacovia. Juridica” Magazine.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY „GEORGE BACOVIA” UNIVERSITY!
